

The Faith Community of

Saint Sabina

1210 West 78th Place * Chicago, IL. 60620 * 773.483.4300

Celebrating a King and a Tribe (Sunday Morning Worship)

Dr. Martin L. King, Jr.
Celebration

Harry Lennix is an actor. He is best known for his roles as Terrence in the film, The Five Heartbeats. Lennix was born in Chicago. He attended Quigley Preparatory Seminary South and Northwestern University. Also starring in Matrix, Ray & Blacklist.

HARRY LENNIX

Sunday, January 18, 2015

11:15 a.m.

African American History Month

Dr. Cornel West is a philosopher, author, and public intellectual. The son of a Baptist minister, West received his undergraduate at Harvard University and received a Ph.D at Princeton University. West is no stranger to the Saint Sabina family.

DR. CORNEL WEST

Sunday, February 22, 2015

11:15 a.m.

African American Speaking Series (Friday Evening)

African American
Speaking Series

Dick Gregory is a comedian, social activist, critic and writer. He is an influential comedian who has used his performance skills to convey his message on civil rights. Gregory was and still is very active in the civil rights movement.

DICK GREGORY

Friday, March 6, 2015

7:30 p.m.

African American
Speaking Series

Lonnie Rashid Lynn, Jr., better known by his stage name Common is a hip hop recording artist and actor from Chicago. His first Grammy was awarded in 2003. Common wrote the song Glory for the new movie, Selma.

COMMON

Friday, March 20, 2015

7:30 p.m.

Rev. Michael L. Pfleger, Senior Pastor

Rev. Thulani D. Magwaza, Pastor