

MAXIMIZING COMMUNITY BENEFIT: HEALTH AND WELLNESS OF CHICAGO'S SOUTH SIDE

THE URBAN HEALTH INITIATIVE SUMMIT

April 29, 2014

8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Registration and breakfast begin at 7:30 a.m.

Chicago State University Library

9501 South King Drive

Chicago, IL 60628

For more information call: 773.834.3458

The Summit is designed to engage the community and university in dialogue on the mutual issues, concerns and priorities identified in the University of Chicago Medicine's Community Health Needs Assessment, specifically diabetes, childhood obesity, breast/colon cancer, asthma and access to health care that impact the wellness of Chicago's South Side.

Join us for a stimulating and engaging day. Together we can improve our community's health and wellness.

Registration and parking are free!
